A Wonderful Gain.

This is a Fine Idea.

Richey & DeFreest the hustling real estate men have a fine display of Pecos valley products in their display window on Main St. The products are all from Chaves county and it would be well for the doubtless and "Missourians" to call around and see Chaves county pears, apples, prunes, peaches, watermelons, cantaloupes, cherry tomatoes, plum tomatoes, tomatoes, potatoes, cucumbers, beets, squash, onions, cane, kaffir corn, Indian corn, Dakota millet, etc., etc. Outside there is a display of Indian corn 15 feet high. It is their intention to make the display a permanent one and from time to time add new varieties of fruit and vegetables. The mare and colt were stolen from Charley Hamilton's place some weeks ago and the first that was seen of them they were on Bowie's place on Eagle Creek. They belonged to T. D. Deel of Douglas, Arizona and are very valuable. The mare was valued at $600 and the colt $1000. Sam Simerson has been working hard on the case as Deel told him he would give him the mare if he would catch the thief and recover the mare and colt. When stolen the mare and colt were not branded and when recovered the mare was branded with a Fleur-de-lis mark and was cut up badly by barb-wire.

What Prominent Dealers Have To Say About Piano Players.

E. F. Droop & Sons, the leading music dealers of Washington, D. C. have been advertising as follows:

"We were the first to offer for sale piano players. Once in a while we change our agencies, because we have found something better. That is our case now. Having taken the agency for the Cecilian, the most perfect and wonderful piano player in the market, we naturally want to close out the stock of 'mechanical' instruments for which we have no use, and therefore offer these at the following prices:

Simplex player with 5 rolls of music—brand new—$200; Angelus, 5 rolls of music $175. Pianola new, $200; Symphonium at cost. The price of the latest improved Cecilian is $250 and very cheap at that. Bear in mind all other mechanical instruments compared with the Cecilian player, are as an amateur compared to the great professional pianist. We will demonstrate this to your satisfaction. Having been pioneers in this field locally our assertions and judgment are based solely on experience. A large assortment of the Cecilian for sale at the Pecos Valley Music Co.
